I just got the sad news this evening, and missed Gary's funeral. I'm at a loss for what to say. Seeing all the wonderful and descriptive comments leaves me humbled, and feeling fortunate to have known Gary, He was so bright, funny, fun, generous, down to Earth, kind, and "Real".. Thank you for being you,

Gary. I'm so sorry for your loss, Julia. My prayers are with you as well as with all of his many friends. It hasn't hit me yet. You will be missed, Gary. God bless.

Well, Gar, I am so very sad to see you go. When I think back about all of those wonderful times we spent helping each other delivering papers on our routes during those cold, cold, winter mornings...oh what fun we had. While we did not spend much time during our adult lives together, when we did meet up, you were always the same funny, gentle, helpful, always smiling guy I knew when growing up. To Julie and family, I am so, so sorry for your loss. And to Gary, You will, indeed, be missed by all who had an opportunity to know you.

Gary was a gentleman, scholar, athlete who loved life and never missed a chance to strike up a conversation with a total stranger . We'll miss him and think of him always.

I'd seen Gary---through touch football and/or softball--almost every year for the past 45 years. One of my favorite people, absolutely. I will miss him. My sympathies, Julia. I always admired the relationship you and Gary had.

Intellegent, worldly, kind, down to earth. Spoke often of his family-especially wife Julie. Knew Gary for many years both in his professional role and in the social world of Senior Softball. Sometimes I would call him -knowing he wouldn't buy my product,--just for the lift his manner would have on the rest of my day. The phrase "one of a kind" doesn't do him justice. Will miss him.
